DETAILED ACTION

General status

1. This is a First Action on the Merits. Claims 1 - 5 are pending in the case and are being examined.

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

3. Figure 7 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.121(d)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1 – 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, lines 11 and 13, recite "an insulating rod", it is not clear if Applicant is referring to the same element.

Claim 5, line 4 it is unclear what applicant intends by "c-C₄F₈".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1 – 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Admitted Prior Art [instant Figure 7 and pages 1 – 5].

Admitted Prior Art [instant Figure 7 and pages 1 – 5] discloses a switchgear having a vacuum valve [1] a pair of switching contacts [4,5], a moving current-carrying shaft [9] a first end of which is integrally coupled with a moving contact of the vacuum valve, a contact pressure adjusting spring [19], an operating rod [17], an operation mechanism part [18], an insulating rod [11] with an insulating barrier. However, Admitted Prior Art do not disclose: the insulating rod being mounted on the operating rod; and electrically insulate the operating rod and the contact pressure adjusting spring. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the insulating rod mounted on the operating rod and electrically insulate the operating rod and the contact pressure adjusting spring, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. [In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70].

Regarding Claims 4, Admitted Prior Art discloses the instant claimed invention except for a specific pressure of the insulating gas. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the specific pressure of the insulating gas, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. [In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233].

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Mathe r et al. [US 6,198,062], Smith [US 5,717,185], Kozawa [US 5,723,839], Smith et al. [US 5,508,487], Kitamura et al. [US 5,191,180]. Applicant also should consider these references in response to this office action. Should issue arise concerning the rejection presented above, these references may be relied upon in a subsequent action to support the lack of novelty or obviousness of claimed subject matter to one of ordinary skill in the art.
